ABOUT THE SHOW

Excitement levels are running high in the London Museum of Egyptology.

The world famous Amulet of Tutankhamun is on display for the first time.

But wait, it's been... stolen!?

Join Professor Pinkerton and his team of expert Egyptologists as they try to find the amulet and unravel the Curse of the Mummy before it is too late...

A 60-minute play in the style of a classic 'whodunit' to really get the children involved.

This interactive play blends action and discussion to fully immerse the audience in the story.

As well as watching the play the children also get the chance to discuss the action they are watching in 'interactions' with the actors throughout the show.

Written & produced to support the Key Stage 2 study of Ancient Egypt.

"AMAZING! 2nd time seeing this show and it was even better. The kids loved it. Thank you so much"

ABOUT THE COMPANY

Hobgoblin Theatre Company was formed in 2007 by Dan Ellis, Hannah Bowen and James Anthony out of a desire to create high-quality accessible theatre for children that had an educational focus.

Early shows focussed on the History curriculum.

The scope of Hobgoblin's work has broadened over the years to include Numeracy, Science and Literacy shows as well as a strong programme of Traditional Tales.

Hobgoblin shows are fast paced, funny and extremely engaging for all ages.

Our body of work now encompasses live shows in schools & theatres, outdoor touring, bespoke workshops and digital shows and resources.

We are adamant that we will continue to innovate as the company continues to grow.

"Children were engaged and excited from the start. Great knowledge and information shared.
