ABOUT THE SHOW

The adventures of young Jim Hawkins told in an entirely Hobgoblin style.

It's the first day of the Jim Hawkins' School for Pirates and things aren't going too well. The teachers are late, Jim's Mum is not happy at having so many people in her tavern and that classic villain, Long John Silver, is back to cause trouble.

There are pirates, parrots, plots and... other exciting things that may or may not begin with the letter P!

What is for certain is that the staff and children in your school will laugh their socks off!

Multi-roling, slapstick humour, word-play and audience participation all combine to make this production fabulously fun for all.

If a live performance isn't possible for any reason we have a high-quality filmed version that can be streamed.

ABOUT THE COMPANY

Hobgoblin Theatre Company was formed in 2007 by Dan Ellis, Hannah Bowen and James Anthony out of a desire to create high-quality accessible theatre for children that had an educational focus.

Early shows focussed on the History curriculum.

The scope of Hobgoblin's work has broadened over the years to include Numeracy, Science and Literacy shows as well as a strong programme of Traditional Tales.

Hobgoblin shows are fast paced, funny and extremely engaging for all ages.

Our body of work now encompasses live shows in schools & theatres, outdoor touring, bespoke workshops and digital shows and resources.

We are adamant that we will continue to innovate as the company continues to grow.

"The children and staff were hooked from the get go."

Due to the performance being interactive, all children from Reception to Year 6 were participating and engaged throughout.

The performance included key vocabulary in relation to the text 'Treasure Island' and the actors explained the majority of the meanings, which meant all children learnt key words."
